Gateway Energy Services Partners with Leukemia & Lymphoma Society in Fight Against Cancer

NYACK, N.Y. – Gateway Energy Services Corporation will join the fight against cancer as the Presenting Sponsor at the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society's (LLS) Light The Night Walk on Saturday, October 4, 2008. At the one-mile walk, which begins at 7 p.m. at Nyack Memorial Park, employees, friends and families of Gateway Energy hope to raise awareness and inspire other local businesses to join the fight and help thousands of people battling cancer. Anyone who would like to walk can register as late as 5 p.m. that day.

“At Gateway, we have a responsibility to support our customers and the communities in which they live,” stated Steve Maslak, President and CEO of Gateway Energy Services. “We take that very seriously. For years, Rockland and the surrounding counties have given us our brightest employees and our corporate headquarters. It’s our pleasure to return the favor.”

Gateway Energy Services, an independent supplier of natural gas and electricity, continues to give back to its community. Based in Montebello, N.Y., the company has raised thousands of dollars for the LLS and the American Heart Association (AHA). The company has also provided in-kind services and supported volunteerism among its employees who have devoted time and expertise to local chapters. Gateway Energy has been a dedicated sponsor of Light The Night since 2004. This year was the inaugural sponsorship of the AHA’s Heart Walk.
